

The Secretariat for Integral Development (SEDI) through its
Department of Sustainable Development (DSD) presents:

Panel of Experts

Sustainable Cities in the Americas: Collaborating for Livable and Inclusive Cities

WHEN: 2:00 PM to 5:00 PM , Tuesday, May 3, 2011

WHERE: General Secretariat Building (GSB), Organization of American States
8th Floor - Rubén Darío Conference Room
1889 F Street NW, Washington DC 20006

RSVP: omorales@oas.org

Speakers:

Billy Cobbett Programme Manager	Cities Alliance
Claudia A. Adriazola Director Health &amp; Road Safety Program	World Resources Institute
Dan Hoornweg Lead Urban Specialist Cities and Climate Change	The World Bank Group
Michael Replogle Global Policy Director and Founder	Institute for Transportation and Development Policy
Patricia Torres Coordinator of the Emerging and Sustainable Cities Initiative	Inter-American Development Bank
Richard Huber Principal Environmental Specialist	Department of Sustainable Development Organization of American States
Sergio Sánchez Executive Director	Clean Air Institute

Please do not print this page unless you need it.
(Just a climate friendly reminder)